Read, Reflect, and React (or Respond) Prompt #8

Now that you have just taken the first midterm and know the results, it is time to sit back and reflect. Even though it's not good to dwell on the past, it's important to use our past experiences to prepare for the future, namely the second midterm. I have always considered the first midterm as a practice test to determine how the professor makes the test, along with other things, and I would always update my test preparation scheme accordingly. With this in mind, please respond to the following:

1. Using what you know about the first test, is there any changes that you would make in your test preparation scheme? Why or why not?
